Chancery Causes: Campbell Slump vs. John C. Olinger

Lee Co.

Jones

CA-Debt

T-Property

To The Hon. John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia.

Your Orator Campbell stems humbly complaining would respectfully represent that heretofore, at the August Term of this Honorable Court your Orator obtained a judgment for Cash in an Ejectment suit against John C. Olinger for the and also a judgment of $^{231.03} obtained at the Circuit Court sum of $231.03 a copy of which said judgment is here with filed as part hereof. No part of which has ever been paid your Orator but the same remains wholly unpaid and due your Orator. The said Olinger is greatly embarrassed and his home tract of land and adjacent tracts, have under your honors decrees been rented for a period of four years, to said Olinger himself. But he is the owner of a tract of wild land on the south side of ~~the little fork of the mountain~~ ^{Stone} Mountain in this County near to, and perhaps adjoining ~~the land of his father~~ ^{his home place} which was not rented; he also owns a considerable borching of land in the Crab Orchard, in said County, and known as Olinger Crab Orchard Tract; which was not embraced in said renting. Your crator alleges that the rent of these tracts will not pay his Judgement, because they are unimproved, but will as he believes pay it by a sale. Your crator is advised that his said Judgement is a lien upon these lands as well as his horse and Mill Tract, subject to the renting as aforesaid; but he seeks nothing against these last named tracts at the present. To enforce this said lien is the object of this bill.

His prayer therefore is that said John C. Olinger be made a party defendant to this bill and answer its allegations upon oath, and upon a hearing a decree be rendered directing sale of so much of said land as may be necessary to pay the same, and for all after further and general relief may super issue &c.
